An Account is faid to have been received this Week of the Pregnancy of her Danish Majesty.

The Senate of Venice have been informed by their Consul at Algier, that he has concluded a Truce with the Dey for 4 Mouths, in order, if possible, to conclude a formal Peace before the Expiration of that Term; but the Conditions which the Dey requires are so disadvantageous to the Republic, that there is no Likelihood of their being accepted. He demands, sit that the like Presents be cepted. He demands, rif, that the like Prefents be ient to him, as were given to his Predecessor when the Peace was concluded, and which consisted of the Sum of 50,000 Zequins, a Saddle laced with Gold, and enriched with Jewels, and a great Quantity of very rich Stuffs. 2dly, he demands, That initead of 10,000 Zequins, which the Republic had engaged to pay annually, they pay him for the future 12,000. 3dly, That they tend him, without delay, all the Presents which he demanded of the Republic, at the Time of his Advancement to the Dignity with which he is invested. And, 4thly and laitly, he makes the following very extraordinary cepted. He demands, 1st, that the like Presents be Dignity with which he is invested. And, 4thly and latily, he makes the following very extraordinary Demand, viz. That his Corfairs may have the Liberty of cruizing in the Gulph of Venice, to pursue there, and attack the Ships of those Nations with whom he has no Treaty; and that if any of those Corfairs should happen to be taken, the Republic shall be obliged to repair the Loss in ready Money.

M. Mello, the Portuguese Minister here, has received a circumstantial Account of the Plot, laid by the Jesuits, to affassinate his Most Catholic Majetty; which horrid Proceeding, joined with their other bad Behaviour of forging Bulls, &c. was, beyond all Doubt, the certain Cause of the late total and eternal Expulsion of those Fathers from Spain.

It is faid, that his Most Christian Majesty has, by his Ambassador at Rome, demanded of his Holi-ness to issue a Bull, or Ordonnance, abolishing for ever the Society of Jesus, and the very Name of

The Hague Gazette, brought by this Day's Mail, contains the following Article, dated Paris, May 11.
" The Day before Yellerday the Parliament, all the Chambers affembled, made an Arret, in confequence of the Opinion of the King's Council, which declares the Society of Jefuits an Enemy to Sovereigns, and to the public Tranquility of States. In confequence whereof, that Supreme Court orders those among them, who on the 6th of August 1761, were Members of the said Society, and who, 1761, were Members of the said Society, and who, taking the Benefit of the Indulgence granted them by the Edict of November 1764, have remained in the Kingdom, to depart from hence at the Expiration of 15 Days, including that of the Publication of the present Arret, under Pain of Criminal Prosecution, except those who have taken the Oath prescribed by this Tribunal. By the same Arret, all those who are thus to quit the States of the Kingdom, are forbidden to return hither under any Presents. and those who are thus to quit the states of the King-dom, are forbidden to return hither under any Pre-tence whatever. Governors of Provinces, Bailiffs, and other Judges, are ordered not to suffer any Je-suits within their Districts. His Majesty's Subjects of every Rank and Condition, are forbidden to af-ford an Asylum to the Jesuits, or keep up the least Correspondence with them, or to receive from the Correspondence with them, or to receive from the Society Letters of Fraternity. Archbishops and Bishops, and all Heads or Communities, of Schools, and other Establishments, are enjoined not to employ any of that Society for the Instruction of Youth. Moreover his Majesty will be implored to use his good Offices with the Pope and other Catholic Princes, to engage them to abolish a Society fo dangerous to Christianity and Sovereign Powers.

Lastly, his Majetty will be equally implored to make the Tenor of this Arret a fundamental Law of the State."
